Live music weekend set for Council Grove

Council Grove will offer three nights of live music July 9-11, with performances scheduled at four local venues.

The weekend begins Thursday, July 9, with nationally touring bluegrass group Mountain Highway performing at 6 p.m. at The Dealership Building. The band is known for traditional Appalachian bluegrass, harmonies and live performances.

On Friday, July 10, Kansas country music artist Logan Mize will perform at 7 p.m. at the Morris County Youth Rodeo Association Arena. The concert is being held as part of the Youth Rodeo weekend.

Two performances are scheduled for Saturday, July 11. Rudy & The Lost Boys will perform at 7 p.m. at the Council Grove Marina. At 8 p.m., The Soul Preachers will perform at Riverbank Brewing, bringing a mix of soul, blues, funk and classic favorites.

“What makes this weekend so special is that it wasn’t coordinated by a single organizer,” said Zoey Wadick, Director of Marketing and Communications for the City of Council Grove. “Each venue planned its own event, and together they’ve created an incredible weekend that showcases both the talent visiting our community and the variety of experiences visitors can enjoy here.”

Cross-country ride carries cyclist past Kansas roots

Jim Ray’s cross-country bicycle ride began at the Pacific Ocean, but the Kansas portion of the trip carried a family connection.

Jim Ray

Ray, an optical networking engineer from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, has family roots in the Wilsey and Delavan area. He contacted the Council Grove Republican while riding through Kansas as part of a long-distance bicycle trip that began June 14 in San Francisco.

Jim Ray’s cross-country bicycle ride began at the Pacific Ocean, but the Kansas portion of the trip carried him near the communities tied to his family history.

Ray, an optical networking engineer from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, has family roots in the Wilsey and Delavan area. His great-grandfather, W. Charles Hopper, was the founder of the Wilsey Warbler newspaper. Although that newspaper no longer exists in the small Morris County community, the name continues through Reba Sumner’s correspondence to the Council Grove Republican, which she still titles the Wilsey Warbler.

Ray’s family also has Delavan-area ties through Albert Ray, another great-grandfather. Family materials Ray shared identify Albert Ray and his wife, Julia Olive Illk Ray, with the Delavan area. Ray said the family was involved in poultry and egg (See Cross-country ride, Page 2)

“Kansas 1776” is Kaw Mission Council

Adam Hodge will present the Kaw Mission Councils: 2026 Westward Expansion lecture Series “Kansas 1776” at 2 p.m., July 12, in the Council Grove United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Adam Hodge

Adam is the head of reference at the Kansas State Historical Society in Topeka. He has a Ph.D in history with specialization in environmental and Indigenous history of the North American West.

Many area residents and guests were pleased with the City of Council Grove fireworks show and were glad that the city found a way to bring back the show after losing its previous vendor. Much appreciation is extended to all the volunteers who assisted. (Photo: Callahan McIver)

Marion driver killed in crash with semi-truck

HARVEY COUNTY (KAKE) -- A driver was killed in a crash with a semi-truck on Highway 50 near Walton on Monday night.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says the crash happened around 6 p.m. on eastbound U.S. Highway 50 near North East Lake Road. The patrol says a 2007 Dodge Ram 1500 was eastbound when it crossed the centerline for an unknown reason.

A 2024 Peterbilt Semi-trailer was westbound on the highway and attempted to make an evasive maneuver to the right, but was unable to avoid the collision. Both vehicles collided head-on.

The driver of the pickup truck, 49-year-old Gerardo Mendoza, of Marion, died at the scene.

The driver of the semi-truck, a 59-year-old Minnesota man, was not injured.

According to the KHP crash log, both drivers were properly restrained at the time of the collision.
